

Kiersten Souerbry, Program Coordinator

kiersten@bb3.org

Joined Bright by Three in March 2017

Kiersten moved to the Denver area in May 2016 from Wisconsin where she graduated from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. She studied Community Health Education and graduated in August 2016 after completing an internship that emphasized program planning and implementing. This is where she found the love for implementing programs that directly help families with health and wellness. Kiersten joined Bright by Three's program team in March 2017 as the Program Coordinator. She works on volunteer outreach and supports the program team with miscellaneous projects.
