

Nichole Robillard, Director of Grants

Joined Bright by Three in January 2017

Nichole supports collaboration with Bright by Three's development partners, and contributes to grant proposals and reporting. With decades of experience managing projects and programs in the corporate and nonprofit sector, Nichole is committed to applying her skills and knowledge to organizations and causes impacting vulnerable families. She holds a B.S. in Business Marketing and Organizational Management from the University of Colorado, Boulder. As a dedicated advocate and volunteer, she has served as founder, board member, and operations advisor to a variety of nonprofits serving children, families, and educators.